Dialogues you use while speaking in English About - The Trades*

These phrases are very useful, and are to be committed to memory and mastered thoroughly.

They should serve as a motive to further conversation.

Good morning, sir.

I am out of work, and I wish to find something to do.

What positions do you have today?

What can you do?

What did you do before?

What kind of work do you want?

I don't care what it is.

I have been without work for about a month, and I must find something now.

Where were you employed before?

I worked in a hotel as a waiter, and as a head waiter also.

Why did you leave your job?

I left it because I wanted more money.

Fill this application here, and come back tomorrow morning.

I believe I can give you a position tomorrow.

Thank you, sir.

Good day.

Are you the man that was here yesterday afternoon?

Yes, sir.

You told me to come back today.

Come over to the desk.

Sit down.

What is your name?

My name is James Miller.

They need a waiter in a country hotel.

Can you go?

Yes, sir.

I can go anywhere.

Take this letter with you, and give it to the manager of the hotel.

Your salary will be twenty-five dollars a month.

Of course there is a chance for you to make some tips, too.

What is the fee for this position?

The fee is two dollars.

If you lose your job in two days, half of the money will be given back to you.

What kind of work are you looking for?

Can you tell me what kind of work you have?

I need some farm laborers.

Do you want to work on a farm?

Yes, I do.

What is the pay?

The pay is twenty-eight dollars a month,
your board, room and washing.

Here are some other kinds of work.

Railroad work.

One dollar and fifty cents per day.

The Company provides for sleeping quarters.

How far is it from here?

It is near Chicago.

The Company will pay your fare and your return fare also.

If you don't like the work, you can come back.

Do you have anything else?

Yes, here is another kind of work.

I can give you a job in a coal mine in Pennsylvania.

The pay is one dollar and seventy-five cents.

Do you want to go to a lumber camp?

It isn't far from here.

You can come to the city every Saturday to see your friends.

The work is not very hard.

You get two dollars a day and your room.

The board is very cheap up there.

You don't have to spend any extra money.

Are you a Union man?

Yes, I belong to the Union.

Do you want to sign the contract?

There is another group of laborers who leave next Monday.

If you want to go, you have time enough to get ready and go with them.

Idon't know what to do.

Iwill think it over.

I will talk over the matter with my family,
and I will let you know by tomorrow
afternoon.

Will that be all right?

Yes.

Please let me know as soon as you can.
