Dialogues you Use While Speaking in English in–Dental clinic

These phrases are very useful, and are to be committed to memory and mastered thoroughly.

They should serve as a motive to further conversation.

Is this the dentist's office.

Yes, sir

Walk right in

Take a chair

The doctor will be in a moment.

Please let me see him at once.

I have a terrible toothache.

I can't stand it any longer.

Wait, I will see if the doctor is busy.

How do you do, doctor?

I wish to have a tooth pulled.

It pains me terribly.

I could not sleep at all last night.

Sit down and let me look at it.

Which one is it?

This one?

No, the next one.

Is it the one that has the cavity?

Yes, that's the one.

All right.

Do you want to take gas?

No, I can stand the pain for a second.

Rinse out your mouth.

I also wish to have a tooth filled.

What kind of filling do you want?

You can have it filled with gold, silver, or cement.

Gold filling will last you longer.

How much will it cost?

It will cost you three dollars.

You see, I have to kill the nerve first, and then fill the tooth.

I cannot stop now.

Can I make an appointment with you?

Yes, when can you come?

I can come any time tomorrow forenoon.

All right, then you may come at nine o'clock.

I wish to have my teeth cleaned.

How much do you charge for cleaning teeth?

One dollar for cleaning teeth.

Where are you going, John?

I am going to the dentist.

I must have a crown put on my tooth.

Let me see it.

It is of no use to have a crown on that tooth.

It is decayed.

The thing you need is a Set of teeth, or you can have a false tooth put in the place of that decayed one.

I don't know what to do.

I think I will ask the doctor about it.
